DEDICATION

The opportunity to serve the United States in foreign lands is one of the greatest privileges provided us by our country. Because the men who accept this challenge of service are seldom given the praise they deserve, we respect the sacrifices they make for the cause of freedom. Therefore, we, the Class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook to the past, present and future graduates of Cedar Grove High School who have or will serve our nation overseas.

What's the matter out there?

FOOTBALL

The Cedar Grove Football team ran up against some tough competition this year and came through it quite well; bettering last year's mark. They had a few bad breaks in the early going but came on strong to win three out of the last four games. Thanks to the fine coaching, good teamwork, and excellent school spirit, they were able to produce a successful season.

BASKETBALL

Cedar Grove's varsity basketball team finished the season with a 17-7 record. The Rockets finished second in the conference, losing the championship in the final regular season game with Sheboygan Falls.

During tournament play the Rockets won four straight games, including a 58-57 overtime victory over Homestead, to gain a sectional berth. At the sectionals Cedar Grove lost to Whitefish Bay, a team which eventually made it to the state tournament.

Coach Ivan Molter proudly displays Cedar Groves' W.I.A.A. regional championship trophy.

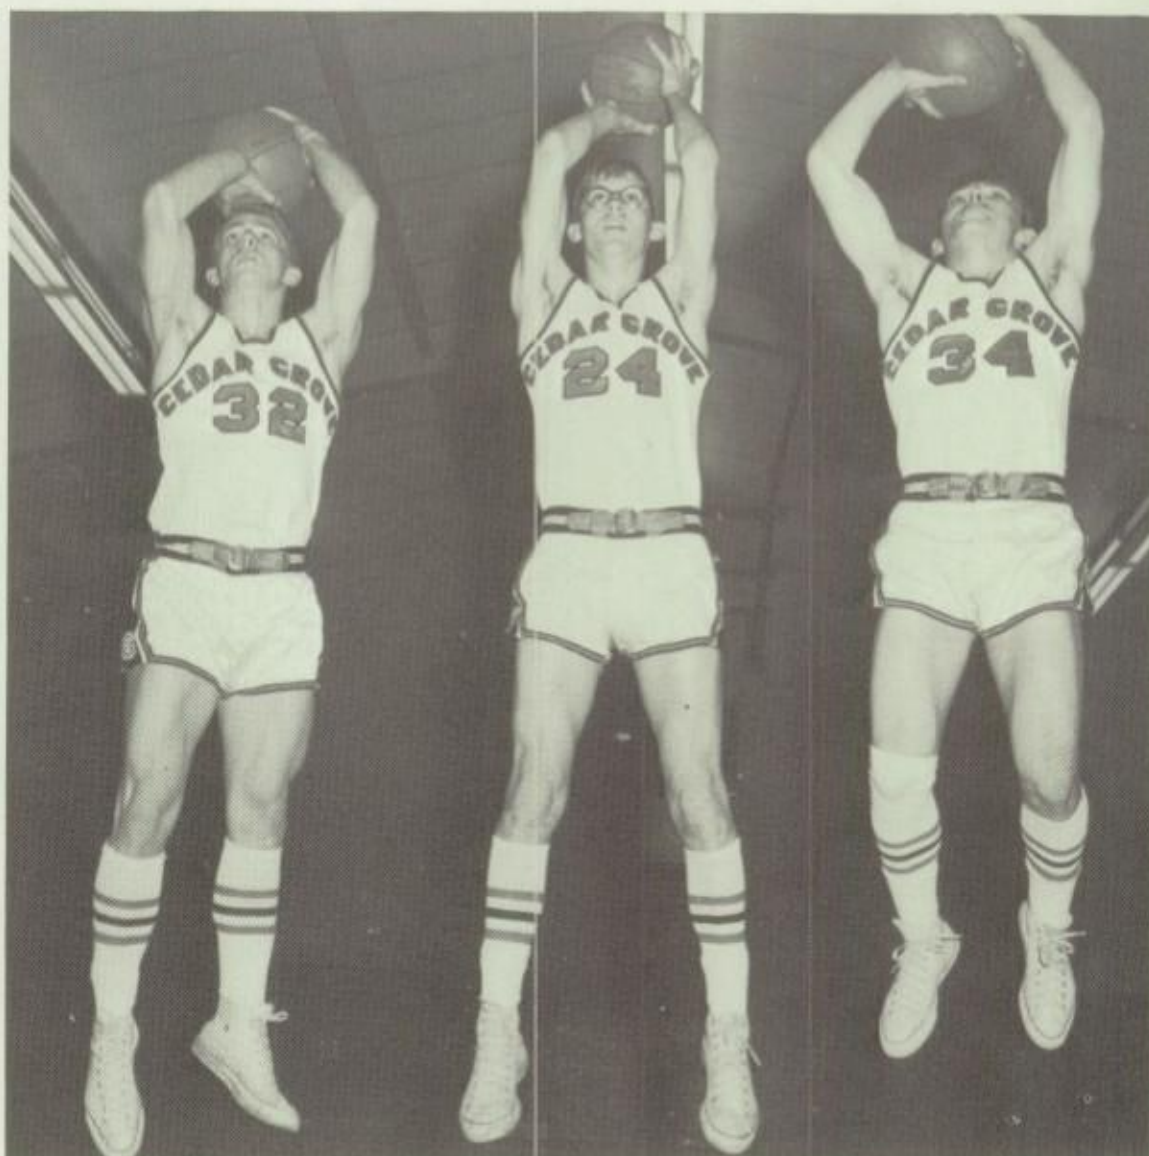

HAPPINESS IS BEATING GRAFTON!

Players are celebrating after winning the W.I.A.A. regional championship. The Rockets eliminated the state's third ranked Blackhawks from tournament play by beating them 49-45.

VARSDITY

The Cedar Grove Varsity, under the coaching of Mr. Voll, produced a very successful season with an 8-6 record. They advanced two wrestlers to the regional finals: Mark Schueller and Jim Kleckner. Of the two, Jim Kleckner advanced to the sectionals.

Gary Anzia, the team's most improved wrestler, breaks down coach Voll.

Team captain Mark Schueller, holder of the fastest pin, (17 sec.) is in a stalemate with the team's most valuable wrestler, Jim Kleckner.

ACTIVITIES

MEMORIA STAFF

SEATED: Mary Edwards, Assistant Editor; Duane Wilterdink, Editor; Sue Neerhof, and Joy Branning, Typists; STANDING: Mr. Lorgier, Adviser; Bruce Tackes, Caption Committee Chairman; Mark Schueller, Business Manager; Lee Veldboom, Assistant Editor. In addition to being 20 pages longer than previous annuals, the "1967 Memoria" contained color for the first time in it's history.

BLAST-OFF STAFF

Under the supervision of Mrs. Cockroft, this year's paper staff distributed 10 issues to the student body. In addition to changing the newspaper's name to Blast-Off, they also published several controversial articles. Editor-in-Chief Jeanne Kowalski commented that typists J. Bialzik, J. Rollinger, J. Leider, and M. Bares worked especially hard in producing the school news paper.

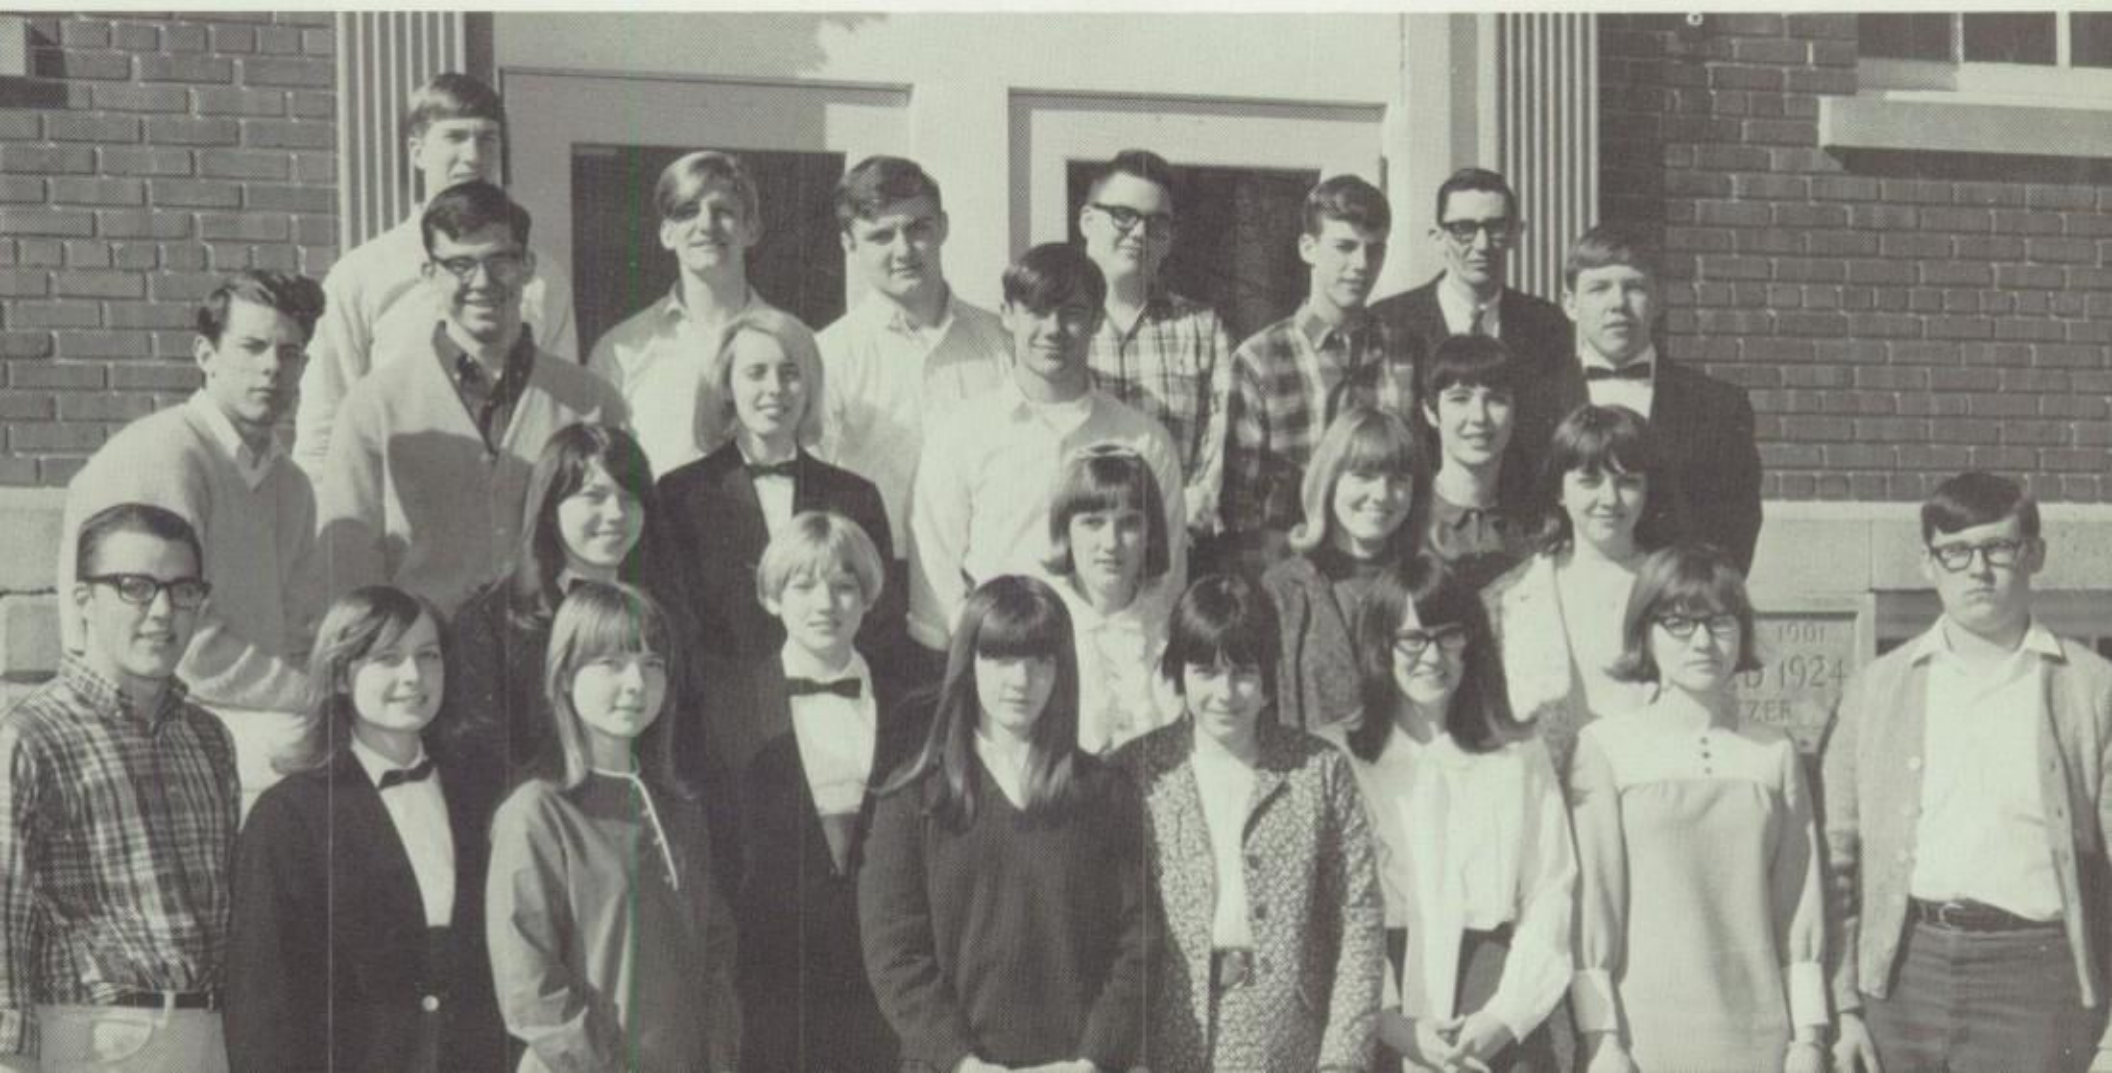

LIBRARY CLUB

In addition to aiding Mr. Baurenfiend in the school library, members of the library club sponsored activities which helped better the community. The club is shown packing donated Christmas gifts to be sent to needy Cuban refugees. On May 4 and 5 they were in charge of a book fair at which they sold paperback books to students and people in the surrounding communities.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

One of the new clubs in school this year is Future Teachers of America. The purpose of the club is to prepare students for the teaching profession. Under the supervision of Mr. Plein, the club spent one day touring the Wisconsin Campus in Madison.

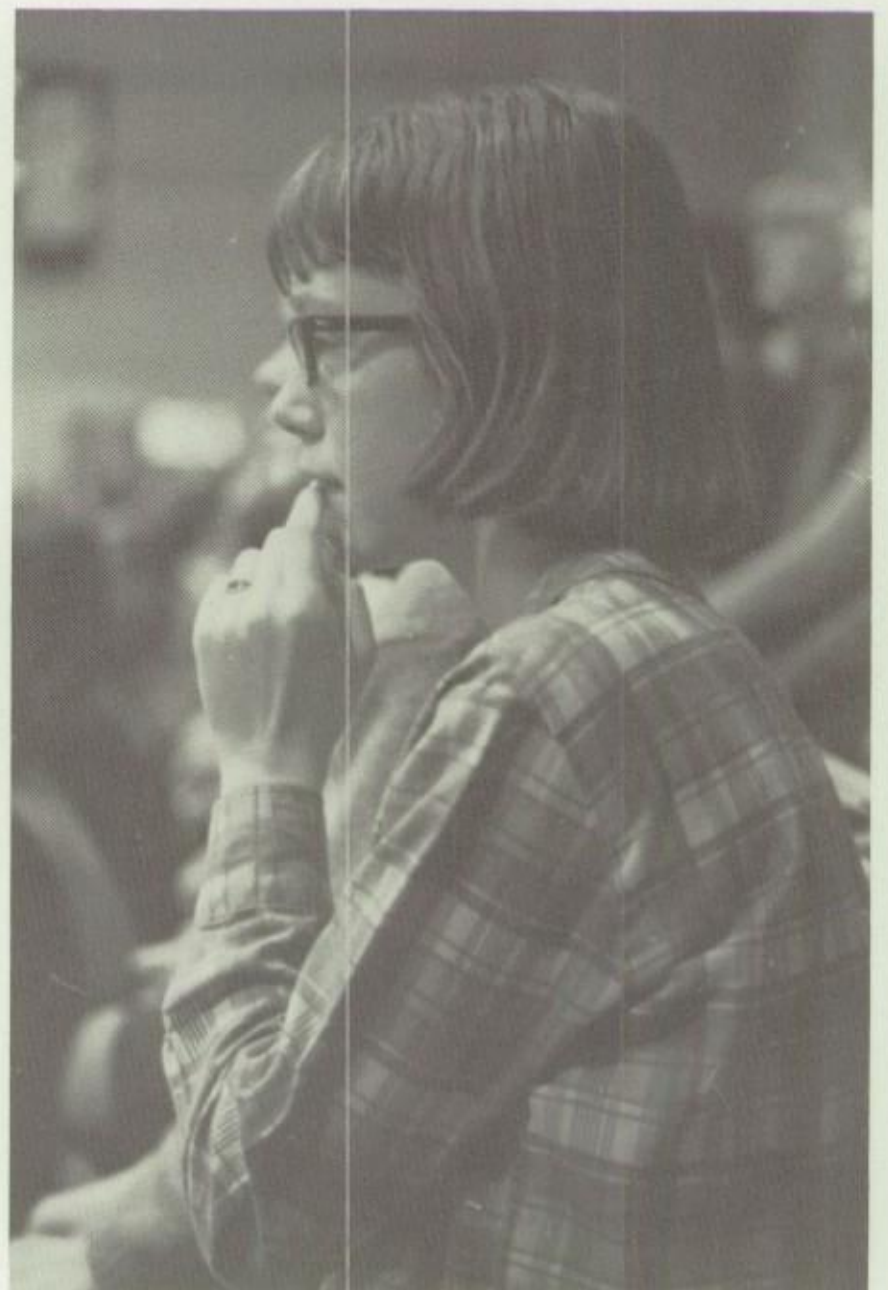

PEP CLUB

Consisting of approximately 90 members, the Pep Club helped arouse school spirit during the year. Under the supervision of Mrs. Voll and the leadership of the cheerleaders, enthusiastic Pep Club members cheered the Rockets on through the football and basketball seasons.

The excited expressions on the faces of enthusiastic football watchers, (above) clearly show the thrill of victory. (Right) One basketball fan nervously watches the tense regional basketball game between the Cedar Grove Rockets and Grafton Blackhawks.

An enthusiastic crowd of Rocket rooters toss shakers in the air and shout with glee during a high point in a basketball game.

Filled with anguish, the A-squad cheerleaders lead cheers at the Homecoming game

G.A.A.

The members of G. A. A. were divided into different teams and competed against each other in various sports such as volleyball, baseball and tennis. Members of the championship team (Twila Nonhof, Mary Teicher, Ellen Teicher, Sandy Drier, Mary Edwards, Carol Hopeman, Sue Neerhof and Anne Vande Wall) attended an invitational volleyball championship meet between other teams in the county and won a trophy for being first runner-up. All in all, the whole club enjoyed a fun-filled year.

DRAMA CLUB

The drama club produced three highly successful one act plays entitled "Death of the Hired Man, " "The Lottery, " and "Romantic Conspiracy. " In addition, the club's members helped produce the Senior Class Play "Charley's Aunt. " There were no plays produces last year and so it was very gratifying to see four plays produced this year.

Each play requires countless hours of work in preparing stage scenery and makeup.

Directors, Mrs. Cockcroft, Mr. Schlude, and Mr. Abicht, helped to make the plays successful.

FORENSICS

Contestants in forensics enjoyed a successful year under the fine supervision of Mrs. Flitsch, Mr. Schlude, and Mr. Baurenfeind. Of those who competed in the regional contest, Mary Voskuil, Ron Kruis, and Ken Bruseth, earned A's which entitled them to attend the sectionals. Ron Kruis emerged as the only state finalist representing Cedar Grove.

DEBATE

Eight Students participated in the newly organized debate team. The team participated in Class A under the coaching of Mr. Schlude.

CEDAR GROVE HIGH SCHOOL

BAND

The Cedar Grove High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Stephen Speidel, enjoyed a very successful year. They presented the annual Christmas and spring concerts and provided pep songs at football and basketball games. The band also hosted the solo & ensemble and band & chorus festivals. At the solo & ensemble festival, eight numbers received first place awards which enabled twenty-three members of band to attend the state festival. The band also received high ratings in concert performance, sight reading, and marching competition at the band festival.

CHORUS

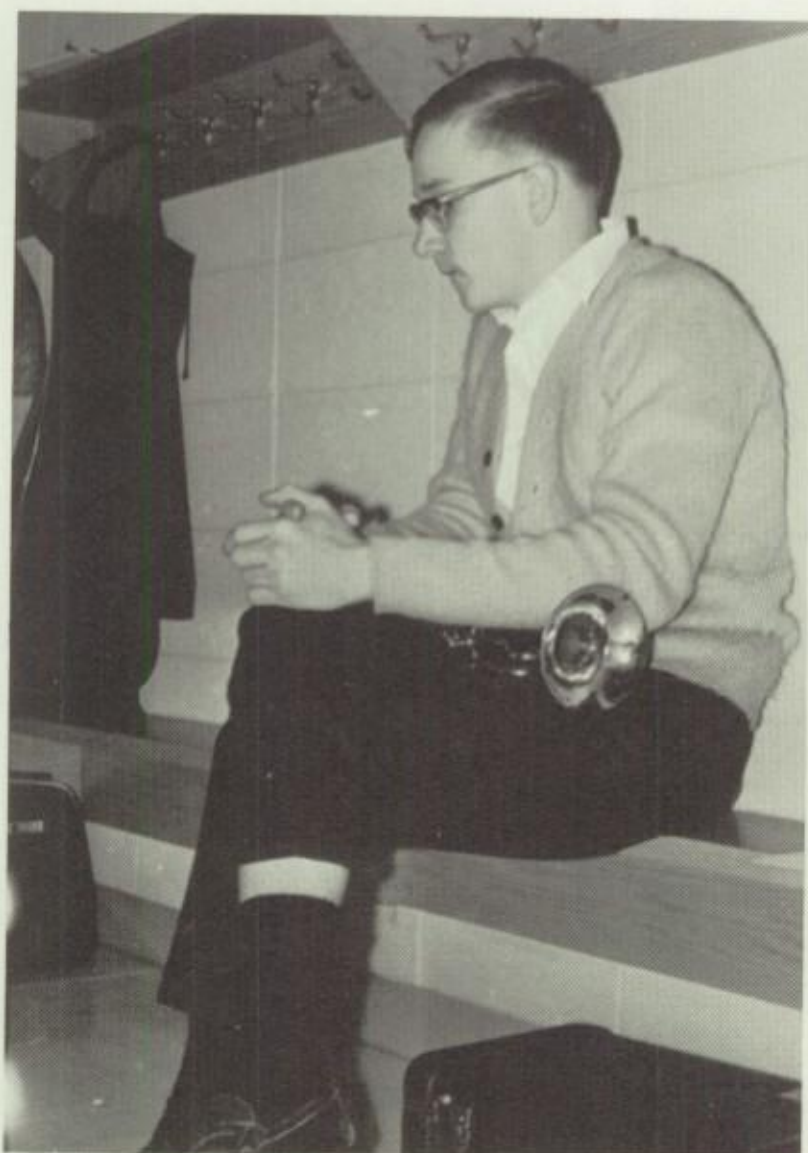

Under the direction of Stephen Speidel, members of the chorus earned four entries to the state solo and ensemble festival. Throughout the school year, the complete chorus performed at various concerts. In the spring, the group competed in class A at the annual band and chorus festival.

Mr. Speidel, director

BASSES AND TENORS: W. Beernink, G. Meeusen, C. Nonhof, R. Hartley, J. Neerhof. ROW 2: S. Meinen, J. Wisse, G. Theune, J. Huenink, R. Simmons, P. Van Ess, ROW 3: M. Wieberdink, S. Speidel, R. Filled with nervousness and anxiety, Cedar Grove High School contestants competed in the solo & ensemble festival. For some, the moments prior to performance were spent in practice while others spent this time tensely waiting their turn. After performing their numbers, each contestant received comments from the judge. Despite the pressures of contest, the band and chorus members succeeded in gaining twelve entries to the state festival.

Queen Mary Beth Clausing and King Tom Dekker reigned over "Homecoming '66'" which was held on September 29 and 30.

The court was presented Thursday night at coronation prior to the official crowning of the queen.

At the bonfire which followed, school spirit soared when a stuffed dummy, representing a Valders' football player, was thrown into the flames by enthusiastic cheerleaders.

"The Kingsmen" supplied music at the dance which followed a hard fought game against the Valders Vikings. The close of the dance at midnight was the happy ending to a successful "Homecoming '66'."

JUNIOR PROM—"CAMELOT"

In our day and age change is only normal and April 22 was no exception. Our gym was transferred from the cold atmosphere of death to an inviting atmosphere of a bright, secure medieval castle, luring many spectators and students to its confines. Once in, the music of Joe Bifano and exquisite lighting from the chandelier all added to the enjoyment of a "night to remember."

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

Breaking tradition, the class of '67 divided and took two separate class trips. Approximately thirty-five members of the class flew to Washington by jet while about thirty-five others went to Chicago by train. Although these individual groups were miles apart and visited various sights, each person was content with the success and enjoyment of his senior class trip.

GRADUATION IS...

. . . obtaining a hard earned tassel and diploma.

. . . receiving well deserved scholarships and special awards.

. . . a time when caps and gowns must be worn perfectly straight.

. . . a time for parents to be extra proud of their sons or daughters.

. . . the last time you will be seeing many fellow classmates and high school friends.

Last, but not least, graduation is leaving a school that you have been waiting 4 years to leave; but now that you have left, you wish you could attend a little while longer.
